Who's on the stage can you tell me, America? I've turned off my TV
C F C G C F C G

Who's who on the pages of People magazine, Miss Oprah Winfrey?

Am Em F C /B

& help me to be the dad I could be if I made lots of money

Am Em F C G/B E₇

& maybe you could lend me a hand, Mr. Covey

C G Am Em
How can I get to where I want to be if there's no one who's going that way

F C G
No one to walk with me, keep me from going astray

C G Am Em
& how can I get to the home that I'm longing for with no one to show me the way

F C G
I'm swimming upstream toward the source, not the sea

F C G
The source not the sea

C F C G C F C G
How much should I give to ensure my prosperity, Reverent Roberts?

C F C G C F C G
I know that God sees & he credits my balance sheet and not just your pocket

Am Em F C /B

And how long must I wait while the neighbours I hate do renovations

Am Em F C G/B E₇

& the couple next door they just traded their Ford for a Bentley

C G Am Em
Follow my leader or Blind man's bluff – are we playing to a burning Rome?

F C G
And the sheep are all comfy and warm but a long way from home

C G
Shepherds and wolves both have teeth and a coat

Am Em
Are there some things that just look the same

F C G
And if there is one thing, everything else fades to grey

Am E F C G/B Am E F C G/B E₇
Fades to grey

C G Am Em
Do I look like Jesus or just like the world and is this what it means to be free

F C G
I'm new on the inside – has anything else really changed?

C G
With one eye on heaven and one on the ground

Am Em
Could I be somewhere caught in between

F C G
And my burning question: Is this a life worth dying for
